

Restricting XM Satellite Radio from broad casting instantant traffic and weather and radio will be anti-competitive. The local broadcasters have the present markets "sewed up". You have to listen for 15 to 30 minutes to get a 10 second announcement about traffic and weather. The local stations need competition from satellite radio so that they will be more responsive to their listeners needs.

BD Shafer, XMSR user.